

Questions for the rodent client to help the veterinarian to gain background knowledge on the care of your pet. Please take a few minutes to answer these questions.

Where did you purchase your pet rat or mouse from?

Pet shop ___ Private breeder ___ Other _____

Does it live with other rats or mice?

Y / N. If so, how many? _____

What other pets do you have in your house? _____

Housing

How large is the cage? _____

How many animals are kept in the cage? _____

What is the cage made from?

Wire _____ Plastic _____ Wood _____

Does the cage have a wire floor? _____ a solid floor? _____

What substrate or flooring is used?

Newspaper _____ Recycled paper litter _____ Wood shavings _____ Other _____

How often is the substrate changed?

Daily ___ Weekly ___ When required _____

What furniture is present in the cage?

Sleeping area _____ Exercise wheel _____ Toys: balls ___ chewing items _____
Other _____

Diet

What is the main food offered to your pet rat or mouse?

Rodent cubes _____ Seed _____ rodent mix _____

What fruit or vegetables are offered?

What other foods are given as treats?

The reason that you are here today...

When did you first notice the problem?

Is the problem getting worse ___ better ___ staying the same _____

What have you seen?

What medications or treatments have been tried?

Do you have any other concerns?
